Interest in securities

Do you hold any substantial 1 securities in any company or body corporate?

Yes/No*

If you have answered yes please provide the name of the company or body corporate below, and the nature of their business (continue on a separate sheet if necessary).

5. Declaration

I declare that to the best of my knowledge the foregoing is accurate, and I am aware that the above information is open to inspection. If my circumstances change, I will immediately inform the governing body and make an appropriate declaration.

Once you have completed this form please return it to the school where you are a governor or an employee.

Please remember you need to declare an interest if your relative or spouse (or someone living with you as if he or she were your spouse) would be considered to have an interest in any item discussed at a meeting. The definition of a relative includes spouse, partner, parent, parents-in-law, son, daughter, stepson, stepdaughter, child of a partner, brother, sister, grandparent, grandchild, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece.

You have a substantial interest if you own shares or other securities in the company with a nominal value of more than £25,000 or more than 1/100th of the issued shares or securities. The notional value is normally the face value on the share certificate and is not the market value. If in doubt contact your broker. If there are several classes of shares or securities, the fraction of 1/100th applies to any of those classes. These limits also apply to deposits with industrial and provident societies, and cooperative societies.
